

Christian Education Director

Yorkville Congregational United Church of Christ, an Open and Affirming congregation in Chicago's western suburbs, is seeking a dynamic Christian Education Director to work in consultation with the pastor and lay leadership with youth programs from infancy through high school. The director should be a strong communicator and listener: ready for the challenge of helping the Christian Education program grow.

Year-round responsibilities include but are not limited to: Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, Confirmation, youth mission trip, youth programs, nursery and community outreach.

The Christian Education Director will research how to increase attendance and enthusiasm; lead youth programs that meet the needs and desires of youth, while being mindful of those with neurodiverse and other needs; recruit and train teachers; coordinate and lead volunteers working with children and youth; work with choir directors on music programs for children and youth; work with pastor on children and youth participation in worship; promote service activities for youth; maintain necessary materials and supplies; provide budget and program input to church leadership team; and engage with the outreach ministry to build connections within the church and community..

Requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent, and Christian Education background. Full-time position, flexible hours. For more job description information and to submit a cover letter and resume, contact: search@yorkville-ucc.org
