

The Council of Religious Leaders of Metropolitan Chicago

in conjunction with

Conservation & Sustainability Interfaith Partnership

Cordially Invites You To An

Energy Conservation Summit for Congregations

at the

Ray & Joan Kroc
Corps Community Center
1250 W. 119th Street
Chicago, IL 60643

Thursday
October 19, 2017
8:30 am – 4:30 pm

- Learn how to measure and manage energy, water and waste usage online for free using the US EPA's Portfolio Manager;
- Learn the benefits of joining the free ENERGY STAR® Partnership Network;
- Enroll in the Utility Small Business Program(s) available for their facility;
- Learn about renewable energy options;
- Receive a free annual water conservation self-audit form;
- Identify funding opportunities for energy efficiency and sustainability projects;
- Engage with other congregations and non-profits to partner on conservation projects;
- Arm themselves with information to begin or continue smart conservation and sustainability efforts;
- Partner with organizations to provide their congregants and community information about residential energy efficiency programs;
- Experience first-hand the network of trusted resources available to support congregations;
- And much more!

Registration is FREE
but seats are limited

Register now for a chance to win some great raffle prizes!

Registration:

[Link]

or by calling CSIP
at 773-577-4109

Coffee and donuts provided

Partner Logos: EPA, USGBC, Utilities, Partners for Sacred Places etc.

CSIP is a non-profit organization founded to help houses of worship save money and help the environment by identifying energy efficiency measures, helping implement projects and proposing funding options for congregations.