

You're invited to the Illinois Conference
8th Annual Women's Retreat
Friday, Sept. 28 - Saturday, Sept. 29, 2018

Biblical Women of Power, Persistence, and Perseverance

Joshua 1:9 reads God told Joshua to be strong, to be brave, to be fearless; and to not be alarmed or terrified because God is with you wherever you go. As we read the Bible, we realize so many of the women mentioned were also strong, brave, and fearless. Women like Deborah, Esther, Jochebed, Lydia, Priscilla, and many others discovered they had power and found ways to persist and persevere, and literally change history. Weaker sex? Nah, just a myth!

During our 23-hour get-a-way we will discover why the writer of Proverbs 31:10 said that women are far more precious than jewels. Together we will explore how we can access power, be persistent, and persevere with these awesome Biblical women as role models for us today. We will share Bible insights, enjoy activities, free time, good food, and laughter, while relaxing in the beautiful Pilgrim Park accommodations of the Upper Conference Center and its surroundings. We will return home feeling re-energized and refreshed, to better live as beloved children of God.

For more information, call Carol Currier-Frighetto (815-478-4485) or Pilgrim Park (815-447-2390). Registration info on the back.
